

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

Vernon Fong

Joined: 1991

League Pennants: 6

Football Championships: 2004, 2005, 2007, 2009, 2010, 2012, & 2016

Special: Vernon's 6 league pennants include an Ultimate League pennant back in 1998 and 3 league pennants in the Hank Greenberg League between 2009 and 2012. More than that Vernon has easily been the most dominate owner in the history of BoxScore Football, winning 7 league championships between 2004 and 2016. He also is one of only two owners who can lay claim to a BoxScore Basketball National Championship back in 1996-97.

George Caballero

Joined: 1992

National Championships: 1993, 1994, & 1998

League Pennants: 11

Football Championship: 2003

Special: Fittingly, George Caballero started his run of domination in BoxScore Baseball's Babe Ruth League because in terms of his Hall of Fame credentials, you could call George the "Babe Ruth of BoxScore Baseball". During the 90's, no owner was more dominating. In addition to winning 3 National Championships and a Megabucks League pennant in 1998, he also won the League of Champions (the 90's version of the Super Megabucks League) in both 1993 and 1994.

Jim Becker

Joined: 1992

National Championship: 2011

League Pennants: 9

Special: Of Jim Becker's 9 league pennants, 5 of them were in Megabucks Leagues. He was victorious in 2000, 2001, 2004, 2006, and then after a short hiatus he returned again to triumph in 2011.

Tommy Goth

Joined: 1992

National Championship: 2002

League Pennants: 8

Special: Tommy Goth dominated the Golden Gator private league winning the league championship 8 times between 1992 and 2007.

Ken Sommers

Joined: 1992

League Pennants: 13

Special: Ken Sommers has not yet managed to win a National Championship; however, his 13 league pennants are certainly an impressive total. Among those championships, he is the only owner to win Megabucks Leagues in 3 different decades (1998, 2001, & 2012). He's also won 9 league titles in Voicemail Draft Leagues where he has truly dominated.

Ken Patten

Joined: 1993

National Championships: 2000 & 2010

League Pennants: 28

Special: Arguably BoxScore Baseball's most consistent owner over the course of the past 20+ seasons, Ken Patten has captured a ridiculous 28 league pennants. Among those pennants are 2 Super Megabucks Championships, 9 Megabucks League Championships, and 10 Ultimate League Championships. 7 times he has won multiple pennants in one season. And no one was more dominate than Ken Patten during the 5-year period between 1999 and 2003 when he won an unimaginable 16 pennants!

Bob Wilfore

Joined: 1993

National Championships: 2006 & 2010

League Pennants: 16

Special: Bob Wilfore has done it all over the course of his 20+ years in BoxScore Baseball. He's won Annual Leagues. He's won Continuous Leagues. He's won LIVE draft leagues and Voicemail Draft Leagues. He's won a Megabucks League. He's won Super Megabucks Leagues. And he's won an amazing 7 Ultimate Leagues!

Carl Isackson/Rick Nelson

Joined: 1993

National Championship: 1995

League Pennants: 6

Special: This pair of owners put together one of the most dominating offensive seasons in the history of BoxScore Baseball in 1999 when they set the all-time, single-season record for home runs (476) and RBI's (1660)—two records that will likely never be broken.

Gerry Scotto DiMarco

Joined: 1993

National Championship: 1997

League Pennants: 20

Special: The accomplishments of Gerry Scotto DiMarco are legendary, not the least of which is his winning a National Championship and a staggering 18 league pennants between 1997 and 2004. Included in those pennants were 8 Megabucks League Championships and 10 Ultimate League Championships.

Gregg Janoff

Joined: 1993

National Championship: 2014 & 2015

League Pennants: 21

Special: In addition to winning two National Championships, Gregg Janoff has amassed an incredible 21 league pennants. Included in those 21 pennants are 2 Megabucks League Championships, 1 Super Megabucks Championship, and 8 Ultimate League Championships. He is also an impressive 6-time champion in the Bob Feller League between 2001 and 2012.

David Przybylski

Joined: 1993

National Championship: 2015

League Pennants: 9

Special: For a period of time David was running a mini-dynasty in the Sandy Koufax League winning pennants in 1999, 2000, 2003, & 2007. But it wasn't until he broke through with his first National Championship in 2015 that he finally earned admittance into the Hall of Fame.

Thomas Bonds

Joined: 1994

League Pennants: 10

Special: Despite having never won a National Championship, Thomas Bonds is one of the few BoxScore Baseball owners to win multiple Ultimate Leagues (2000, 2002, 2007, & 2016), multiple Megabucks Leagues (two in 2003, & 2005), and multiple Super Megabucks Leagues (2002, 2007 & 2016).

Todd Lammi

Joined: 1995

National Championships: 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, & 2004

League Pennants: 13

Special: Undeniably the gem of BoxScore Baseball's Ultimate Leagues, Todd Lammi won 11 Ultimate League pennants and 6 consecutive National Championships. His teams also hold the all-time, single-season records for highest batting average (.310), highest OPS (.834), most runs scored (1564), and most strikeouts (1852)—all records that have stood for over 10 years.

Keith Nosis

Joined: 1995

National Championship: 2003 & 2012

League Pennants: 4

Special: Keith is the only owner in BoxScore Baseball history to win a National Championship in both the Ultimate Leagues and in the non-Ultimate Leagues. He also won a pennant in a Megabucks League.

Tim Grand

Joined: 1995

National Championship: 2010

League Pennants: 8

Special: Tim Grand, who often partners with either Keith Taylor or Ken Patten, has triumphed in 2 Megabucks Leagues. He also is the only owner who is a four-time winner in the Super Megabucks Leagues.

Ron Bieganowski

Joined: 1999

National Championships: 2004, 2005, 2007, & 2008

League Pennants: 8

Special: Ron Bieganowski dominated the Ernie Harwell private league, winning the pennant in his rookie season in 1999 and then knocking off 7 straight league championships between 2002 and 2008. During his run of success he also won 4 BoxScore Baseball National Championships.

Tony Nosis

Joined: 2003

National Championships: 2009, 2013, & 2016

League Pennants: 16

Special: Tony was coincidentally inducted into the Hall of Fame the same season as his son Keith in 2013. Between the years of 2009 and 2016 Tony was the most dominate owner in the BoxScore Baseball Ultimate Leagues as he amassed 16 league pennants. In 2013, Tony became just the 7th owner in BoxScore Baseball history to win multiple National Championships.
