

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

George Caballero

Joined: 1992 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)
National Championships: 1993, 1994, & 1998
League Pennants: 11
Football Championship: 2003

Special: Fittingly, George Caballero started his run of domination in BoxScore Baseball's Babe Ruth League because in terms of his Hall of Fame credentials, you could call George the "Babe Ruth of BoxScore Baseball". During the 90's, no owner was more dominating. In addition to winning 3 National Championships and a Megabucks League pennant in 1998, he also won the League of Champions (the 90's version of the Super Megabucks League) in both 1993 and 1994.

Jim Becker

Joined: 1992 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)
National Championship: 2011
League Pennants: 9

Special: Of Jim Becker's 9 league pennants, 5 of them were in Megabucks Leagues. He was victorious in 2000, 2001, 2004, 2006, and then after a short hiatus he returned again to triumph in 2011.

Tommy Goth

Joined: 1992 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)
National Championship: 2002
League Pennants: 8

Special: Tommy Goth dominated the Golden Gator private league winning the league championship 8 times between 1992 and 2007.

Ken Sommers

Joined: 1992 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)
National Championship: 2019
League Pennants: 14

Special: Seven years after being enshrined in the BoxScore Baseball Hall Of Fame, Ken Sommers won his first National Championship in 2019. He has amassed 14 league pennants. Among those championships, he is the only owner to win Megabucks Leagues in 3 different decades (1998, 2001, & 2012). He's also won 9 league titles in Voicemail/Email Draft Leagues, a format where he has truly dominated.

Ken Patten

Joined: 1993 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)
National Championships: 2000 & 2010
League Pennants: 30
Football Championship: 2005

Special: Arguably BoxScore Baseball's most consistent owner over the course of the past 20+ seasons, Ken Patten has captured a ridiculous 30 league pennants. Among those pennants are 2 Super Megabucks Championships, 9 Megabucks League Championships, and 12 Ultimate League Championships. 7 times he has won multiple pennants in one season. And no one was more dominate than Ken Patten during the 5-year period between 1999 and 2003 when he won an unimaginable 16 pennants!

Gregg Janoff

Joined: 1993 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)
National Championship: 2014 & 2015
League Pennants: 21

Special: In addition to winning two National Championships, Gregg Janoff has amassed an incredible 21 league pennants. Included in those 21 pennants are 2 Megabucks League Championships, 1 Super Megabucks Championship, and 8 Ultimate League Championships. He is also an impressive 6-time champion in the Bob Feller League between 2001 and 2012.

Gerry Scotto DiMarco

Joined: 1993 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)
National Championship: 1997
League Pennants: 20

Special: The accomplishments of Gerry Scotto DiMarco are legendary, not the least of which is his winning a National Championship and a staggering 18 league pennants between 1997 and 2004. Included in those pennants were 8 Megabucks League Championships and 10 Ultimate League Championships.

Bob Wilfore

Joined: 1993 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championships: 2006 & 2010

League Pennants: 16

Special: Bob Wilfore has done it all over the course of his 20+ years in BoxScore Baseball. He's won Annual Leagues. He's won Continuous Leagues. He's won LIVE draft leagues and Voicemail Draft Leagues. He's won a Megabucks League. He's won Super Megabucks Leagues. And he's won an amazing 7 Ultimate Leagues! He was the first owner in BoxScore Baseball history to win a National Championship and a Ultimate National Championship.

Carl Isackson/Rick Nelson

Joined: 1993 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championship: 1995

League Pennants: 6

Special: This pair of owners put together one of the most dominating offensive seasons in the history of BoxScore Baseball in 1999 when they set the all-time, single-season record for home runs (476) and RBI's (1660)—two records that will likely never be broken.

Thomas Bonds

Joined: 1994 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)

League Pennants: 12

Special: Despite having never won a National Championship, Thomas Bonds is one of the few BoxScore Baseball owners to win multiple Ultimate Leagues (2000, 2002, 2007, & 2016), multiple Megabucks Leagues (two in 2003, & 2005), and multiple Super Megabucks Leagues (2002, 2007, 2016, & 2019).

Todd Lammi

Joined: 1995 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championships: 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, & 2004

League Pennants: 13

Special: Undeniably the gem of BoxScore Baseball's Ultimate Leagues, Todd Lammi won 11 Ultimate League pennants and 6 consecutive National Championships. His teams also holds the all-time, single-season records for highest batting average (.310), highest OPS (.834), most runs scored (1564), and most strikeouts (1852)—all records that have stood for over 10 years.

Tim Grand

Joined: 1995 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championship: 2010

League Pennants: 8

Special: Tim Grand, who often partners with either Keith Taylor or Ken Patten, has triumphed in 2 Megabucks Leagues. He also is the only owner who is a four-time winner in the Super Megabucks Leagues.

Ron Bieganowski

Joined: 1999 (2012 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championships: 2004, 2005, 2007, & 2008

League Pennants: 8

Special: Ron Bieganowski dominated the Ernie Harwell private league, winning the pennant in his rookie season in 1999 and then knocking off 7 straight league championships between 2002 and 2008. During his run of success, he also won 4 BoxScore Baseball National Championships.

Keith Nosis

Joined: 1995 (2013 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championship: 2003 & 2012

League Pennants: 4

Special: Keith is the only owner in BoxScore Baseball history to win a National Championship in both the Ultimate Leagues and in the non-Ultimate Leagues. He also won a pennant in a Megabucks League.

Tony Nosis

Joined: 2003 (2013 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championships: 2009, 2013, 2016, 2017, & 2018

League Pennants: 22

Special: Tony was coincidentally inducted into the Hall of Fame the same season as his son Keith in 2013. Between the years of 2009 and 2017 Tony was the most dominate owner in the BoxScore Baseball Ultimate Leagues as he amassed 18 league pennants. In 2017, Tony became just the third owner in BoxScore Baseball history to win 4 or more National Championships.

Vernon Fong

Joined: 1991 (2013 Hall of Fame Inductee)

League Pennants: 6

Football Championships: 2004, 2005, 2007, 2009, 2010, 2012, & 2016

Special: Vernon's 6 league pennants include an Ultimate League pennant back in 1998 and 3 league pennants in the Hank Greenberg League between 2009 and 2012. More than that Vernon has easily been the most dominate owner in the history of BoxScore Football, winning 7 league championships between 2004 and 2016. He also is one of only two owners who can lay claim to a BoxScore Basketball National Championship back in 1996-97.

David Przybylski

Joined: 1993 (2015 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championship: 2015

League Pennants: 9

Special: For a period of time David was running a mini-dynasty in the Sandy Koufax League winning pennants in 1999, 2000, 2003, & 2007. But it wasn't until he broke through with his first National Championship in 2015 that he finally earned admittance into the Hall of Fame.

John Thell

Joined: 1996 (2017 Hall of Fame Inductee)

League Pennants: 11

Special: John will forever be known as the owner who won the very first Las Vegas Super Megabucks League. Although John has never won a National Championship, he has finish runner-up on multiple occasions. Between 2002 and 2016 John was a force to be reckoned with in the Voicemail Draft Leagues as he captured 7 pennants in leagues with that format. He also won 2 Ultimate League pennants as well.

Rick Garlinghouse

Joined: 2014 (2017 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championship: 2016

League Pennants: 8

Football Championships: 2015, 2015, & 2016

Special: Just 4 seasons after joining BoxScore Baseball, Rick finds himself already inducted into the Hall of Fame. That makes him the fastest owner ever to gain admission. But his credentials are impeccable. In just 4 short years he has already won 1 National Championship, 2 Super Megabucks League pennants, and 4 Ultimate League pennants. And if that wasn't enough, he also won 3 Football Championships, including becoming the only owner in BoxScore Football history to win both championships in the same year.

Lance Smith

Joined: 2005 (2019 Hall of Fame Inductee)

National Championships: 2010, 2018, & 2019

League Pennants: 7

Special: Lance secured his induction into the Hall of Fame by virtue of winning his second National Championship in 2018. That made him just the second owner in BoxScore Baseball history to win a National Championship and an Ultimate National Championship. Lance has always competed against the best. Included in his 7 pennants are 4 Ultimate League pennants and 3 Super Megabucks League pennants.
